A THE COMPANY'S COMMITMENTS CONCERNING SECURITIES

A.1 RECORDING AND HOLDING IN CUSTODY ACCOUNT

A.1.1 The Company shall, under its custody arrangements, record such securities that have been received by the Company for holding, etc. in the Custody Account. The Company reserves unto itself the right to give consideration to the receipt of certain securities, see also section G.9. If the Client has several custody accounts with the Company and the Client has not instructed the Company in which Custody Account a particular security shall be recorded, the Company may decide upon the Custody Account in which the record shall be made.

A.1.2 In terms of these General Conditions, financial instruments entered in book-entry systems at a central securities depository (CSD) or the equivalent - for example, in Vp-accounts with the Swedish Central Securities Depository, Euroclear Sweden AB (Euroclear) - shall be regarded as having been received when the Company has been put in a position to register, or cause to be registered, information concerning the instrument in such a system. Other securities are regarded as having been received when they have been delivered to the Company. Securities received, which have been issued in document form, shall be held by the Company on behalf of the Client.

A.1.3 The Company may cause the Client's securities to be registered and, where applicable, deposited with another securities institution in Sweden or abroad, a so-called custodian. The choice of custodian is at the Company's discretion. Securities deposited with a custodian are normally held in the Company's name on behalf of the Client. The Client's securities may thereby be registered together with the securities of other holders. The Company may also permit the Client's financial instruments to be included in a single document common to a number of owners. The Company may instruct a custodian to allow itself to be registered in place of the Company in respect of the Client's securities. The Client is aware and acknowledges that the Client's securities may be held in an omnibus account with the custodian. Whether or not the Client has a protected property law right of separation in the event the Company or the custodian is placed into insolvent liquidation or affected by another measure with a similar legal effect may vary and depends on applicable legislation. Separation rights apply in Sweden on condition that the securities are held separately from the custodian's or the Company's own securities.

In conjunction with registering and holding at custodians abroad, as a result of applicable foreign law, it may be impossible to identify the Client's securities separately from the custodian's or the Company's own securities, whereupon the Client's securities, in conjunction with an insolvency situation, could be deemed to be included in the assets of the custodian or the Company.

A custodian may have security in, or set-off rights concerning, the Client's securities and claims connected thereto.

A.1.4 The Company undertakes no examination into the authenticity of the Client's securities.

A.1.5 The Company is entitled to reasonable time in order to effect the recording, delivery and transfer of securities.

A.1.6 The Company reserves the right to withdraw securities from the Client's Custody Account when the issuer of the securities has gone into bankruptcy or the securities have become valueless for another reason. If possible, the Company shall then seek to register the securities in the Client's name with the authorised registrar.

GENERAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING CUSTODY AND CASH ACCOUNT SERVICES

A.2 NOMINEE REGISTRATION (OR THE EQUIVALENT)

The Company, if acting in a nominee capacity, may allow securities received to be registered in its own name with that entity in Sweden, for example Euroclear, or abroad which undertakes the registration of the instrument. Accordingly, the Client's financial instruments may be registered together with other owners' financial instruments of the same class. The Company may also allow the Client's financial instruments to be included in a single document common to a number of owners. The Company may instruct a custodian to allow itself to be registered in place of the Company in respect of the Client's financial instruments.

B THE COMPANY'S UNDERTAKINGS CONCERNING SECURITIES

B.1 GENERAL

B.1.1 The Company undertakes to carry out on behalf of the Client the measures as are set out in section B.2-B.4 below in respect of securities received.

B.1.2 The undertaking comes into effect - if nothing to the contrary appears hereunder or has been specially agreed - for Swedish financial instruments registered with Euroclear from and including the fifth, and for the remaining Swedish securities and for foreign financial instruments from and including the fifteenth, banking day after the securities have been received by the Company. Accordingly, the Company is not obligated to take notice of any time limits that expire prior to that time.

B.1.3 The Company undertakes the measures set out below subject to the condition that the Company has received adequate information in good time concerning the circumstances giving rise to the measures through notice from the Client, custodian, issuer, Euroclear or other central securities depository.

B.1.4 The issuer is responsible for the distribution of annual reports, interim reports, prospectuses and other information. Prospectuses and other information concerning offers are not normally distributed. Instead, the Company provides the Client with a summary of the offer. At the same time, the Client receives directions as to where more information regarding the offer can be obtained.

B.1.5 The Company may fully or partly refrain from taking a measure if there are not sufficient funds on a Cash Account connected to the Custody Account, or if the credit limit, if any, is insufficient to allow for such measure to be taken or if the Company has not been furnished with that information necessary for the measure to be taken.

B.1.6 The Company may, on its own initiative and at its own discretion in each specific case, irrespective of what is stated in sections B.2 and B.3 below, on the Client's behalf take or omit to take measures detailed in the points mentioned if the Company has specified this in a notification concerning such measures to the Client and if the Client has not instructed otherwise within the response period given in the notification. The Client is bound by a measure taken or omitted to be taken by the Company in the same way as if the Client had instructed that the measure should be taken or not taken.

B.1.7 The Company and the Client can agree that the Company shall act in another manner than what the Company should otherwise do according to sections B.2.2 b) and d) and B.3 below. If the question concerns subscription/additional purchase or the sale of the Client's rights, such an agreement cannot be made after that point in time when the Company concerned has the intention to carry out the subscription/additional purchase or sale of the Client's rights. That point in time, mostly with respect to the remaining time for trading in the rights, occurs regularly before the official last point in time for subscribing.

B.1.8 On the Company's sale of rights according to the terms hereunder, the sale may be combined for several Clients and, where applicable, in accordance with the Company's special Policy regarding execution of orders and aggregation and allocation of orders applicable from time to time. In such circumstances, the funds shall be distributed proportionally between the Clients.

B.1.9 If, according to the applicable law or rules for an issue or an offer, the Client does not have the right to exercise those preferential rights which result from the Client's holding of certain financial instruments, the Company may sell those preferential rights.

B.2 SWEDISH FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

B.2.1 As regards Swedish financial instruments the Company's undertaking - with the possible variation that can result from what is stated in section B.1.6 - covers the following measures. In this section B.2, "Swedish financial instruments" means financial instruments that are issued by issuers whose registered offices are located in Sweden and that are registered in accordance with the Registration of Financial Instruments Act (1998:1479) and traded on a Swedish marketplace.

B.2.2 As regards shares the Company undertakes to:

- a) receive dividends. If the Client has the choice of receiving a dividend in cash or in another form, the Company may choose to collect the dividend in cash if the Client has not explicitly instructed otherwise;
- b) subscribe for shares on behalf of the Client with regard to a rights issue, or particular instructions from the Client, and that - if the Company determines it to be practical and appropriate - realise the value of subscription rights not utilised;
- c) notify the Client of any public offer for the acquisition of shares, directed to the Client by the issuer (redemption/buy-back) or by any other party (buyout) and regarding which the Company has received information in the manner described in section B.1.3 or, after specific instructions by the Client, to assist in taking any action required in connection therewith. The same applies with regard to public offers to acquire financial instruments directed at the Client;

GENERAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING CUSTODY AND CASH ACCOUNT SERVICES

- d) that with a bonus issue concerning shares in the custody account to purchase as many new shares as the Client is entitled to;
- e) notify the Client of any compulsory redemption in the case of shares in the Euroclear registered companies;
- f) receive or collect, in the case of shares in the Euroclear registered companies, capital as well as other sums due where there is a reduction in share capital, redemption or liquidation; and
- g) that unless the Client notifies the Company otherwise, arrange for the voting rights to nominee shares to be registered at Euroclear Sweden in the Client's name. If the Custody Account is held jointly by two or more parties and the client does not notify the Company otherwise at least five banking days before the deadline for inclusion in the Company shareholders' register for participation at the Annual Meeting, registration for voting rights in the Custody Account shall be made in the name of the main party responsible.

B.2.3 As regards warrants in respect of subscription rights, the Company undertakes, after specific instructions by the Client, to arrange subscription for new shares and - if the Company considers it feasible in practice and expedient- sell the warrants which are not taken up.

B.2.4 As regards purchase rights, the Company undertakes, after specific instructions by the Client, to give notification of purchase and - if the Company considers it feasible in practice and expedient - sell the purchase rights which are not taken up.

B.2.5 As regards redemption rights, the Company undertakes, after the special instructions of the Client, to give the requisite notification of redemption and - if the Company considers it feasible in practice and expedient - sell the redemption rights which are not taken up.

B.2.6 As regards Swedish "depository receipts" concerning foreign shares, the Company undertakes to render the equivalent services as for Swedish shares according to the above if the Company considers it feasible in practice and expedient.

B.2.7 As regards debt instruments and other promissory notes that are negotiable on the capital market, the Company undertakes to:

- a) receive and collect interest and capital or other sums which with redemptions, lottery drawings or cancellation fall due for payment after the debt instrument is received;
- b) collect income drawn on premium bonds according to the lottery list, in connection with drawings which have taken place after the premium bonds are received by the Company;
- c) after specific instructions by the Client, to arrange for conversion of convertibles and other convertible promissory notes;
- d) after specific instructions by the Client subscribe, on account of the Client, to any debt instrument/promissory note issue to which the Client has preferential rights;

- e) notify the Client regarding any public offer for the acquisition of financial instruments directed to the Client from the issuer or a third party, concerning which the Company has either received information in the manner described in section B.1.3 or through notices in the Swedish newspapers Dagens Nyheter or Svenska Dagbladet, and after taking the Client's specific instructions, assist the Client with the desired measures to be taken in that connection. The same applies to any public offerings regarding the purchase of debt instruments/ promissory notes directed to the Client.

B.2.8 As regards financial instruments, which are not covered by sections B.2.1-7 above, such as options, futures and mutual fund units, in the case of the last, the Company undertakes to collect dividends, and in addition to carry out any other measures the Company has agreed to undertake by special agreement with the Client.

B.2.9 As regards other financial instruments issued by an issuer whose registered office is located in Sweden and admitted to trading on a regulated market outside Sweden, what is stated below in section B.3 concerning foreign financial instruments applies.

B.3 FOREIGN FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

B.3.1 As regards shares and debt instruments which are not covered by section B.2 above and which are admitted to trading on a regulated market within the EEA or on an equivalent market outside the EEA, the Company shall render - with those possible exceptions which can result from what is stated in section B.1.6 - the same services as in respect of equivalent Swedish financial instruments, where the Company considers this is feasible in practice and expedient. In connection herewith the Client should be particularly aware of certain foreign shares registered with Euroclear for which, due to restrictions in Euroclear's obligations, there are constraints regarding the shareholder's option to exercise some rights e.g. to participate in general meetings and to participate in issues as well as being informed thereof. Such foreign shares are traded on separate lists.

B.3.2 As regards foreign financial instruments other than those set out in the previous section, the Company's undertakings - with the possible exception according to what has been said in section B.1.6 - shall only include such undertakings as have been subject to separate agreement between the Company and the Client.

When the measure concerns foreign financial instruments, the Client fully acknowledges that the Client's rights may vary depending on the jurisdiction applying to such financial instruments. The Client is also aware and acknowledges that, where the measure relates to a foreign financial instrument the Company may often have to apply different time limits, vis-à-vis the Client, than those applicable in the country where the measure in question should be taken.

B.4 SWEDISH AND FOREIGN DOCUMENTS OF VALUE

As regards Swedish and foreign documents of value, the Company's undertakings - with those possible exceptions which can result from what is stated in section B.1.6 - are to do what the Company has taken upon itself to do by separate agreement between the Company and the Client.

C CASH ACCOUNTS AND CREDIT CONNECTED TO THE CUSTODY ACCOUNT

C.1 One or several Cash Accounts are connected to the Custody Account. Unless otherwise agreed, one connected Cash Account shall be maintained in Swedish kronor.

C.2 The Company may credit a connected Cash Account with funds which represent an advance payment for purchase orders or settlement for sales orders (or equivalent), the yield on securities serviced as well as funds which the Client otherwise passes over to the Company or which the Company receives on behalf of the Client and which are related to the Custody Account.

C.3 The Company may debit a connected Cash Account in respect of amounts which the Client may have instructed or has accepted and in respect of outlays, costs or preliminary tax related to the connected Cash Account or the Custody Account. The Company may also debit a connected Cash Account with amounts representing outlays, expenses and fees for any other commissions which the Company may have undertaken for the Client, and also payments in respect of any other due claims which the Company may have on the Client from time to time. The Client's withdrawal from the connected Cash Account will only be executed as a transfer to a bank account previously designated by the Client and opened in the Client's name.

C.4 Funds in foreign currency remitted or received by the Company on account of the Client shall be exchanged into Swedish kronor, using the Company's from time to time applicable exchange rate, prior to a connected Cash Account being debited or credited - unless otherwise agreed or provided that none of the Cash Accounts concerned are maintained in that specific foreign currency.

C.5 Subject to the Company's approval, the Client can obtain credit facilities, provided the Client is not under age or incapable of managing his own affairs or the contents of the Custody Account or the funds on the connected Cash Accounts are not subject to separate administration or under the administration of an official guardian.

A credit facility can be available - if the Company does not inform otherwise - up to an amount equivalent, from time to time, to the total collateral value of the assets in the Custody Account and connected Cash Accounts. In the event of the Client pledging, under a separate agreement, securities recorded in the Custody Account and/or assets on connected Cash Account also for obligations other than the Client's credit facility (for example, for trading with derivative instruments), depending on such policies which the Company applies from time to time, such obligations shall be taken into account in determining the extent of entitlement to credit.

C.6 The Client's credit facility according to these General Conditions applies until further notice, the Company retaining the right to terminate the credit after one month's notice. The credit facility is terminated without notice, if remaining unutilised after six months.

On giving notice of termination of the Custody and Cash Account Agreement, according to Section G.10 below, first to third paragraphs, the credit is due for payment when the Custody and Cash Account Agreement terminates.

C.7 The collateral value of the assets in the Custody Account and connected Cash Accounts is calculated by the Company in accordance with those principles which the Company applies from time to time. The Client can obtain information from the Company about the up-to-date total value of the collateral and the up-to-date collateral value of certain financial instrument recorded in the Custody Account as well as the collateral value and the balance of the connected Cash Accounts.

It is the Client's responsibility to be aware at all times of the total collateral value of the assets in the Custody Account and connected Cash Accounts and to ensure that there is no shortfall in the collateral (borrowing in excess of limit) at any time, that is to say that - even with regard to other obligations against which the above mentioned assets have been pledged - the credit at no time exceeds the total collateral value of the assets. Under no circumstances can the Client avoid responsibility for a shortfall in collateral which may arise, by maintaining that the Company did not give notification of the current total collateral value of the pledged assets in the Custody Account and connected Cash Accounts or concerning a shortfall arising in the collateral held.

If a shortfall in collateral should nevertheless occur, the Client is obliged to repay the Company immediately and of his own accord the excess amount owing or pledge additional collateral to cover the shortfall. In the absence of such repayment or such pledge of additional collateral, the whole amount owing on the connected Cash Accounts becomes immediately repayable. If the Client is not a professional investor the Company has the right in such circumstances to sell pledged collateral to such extent as to bring the credit within the approved credit limit.

C.8 Credit interest shall be paid on the connected Cash Accounts according to the interest rates that the Company applies from time to time in respect of accounts of a similar nature. For any amounts owing in the connected Cash Account interest is due initially at the rate the Company applies from time to time for amounts owing in an account of this nature.

In determining whether there is a credit balance or an amount owing on connected Cash Accounts, each account is treated separately. This means, for example, that one connected Cash Account can be credited with interest whereas another connected Cash Account can be charged interest.

The interest rates may be changed with immediate effect following official rate changes, changes in the Company's funding costs or other cost increases for the Company. Changes in the interest rates for other reasons may take place only from and including that day when the Company has informed the Client regarding changes in the interest rate.

GENERAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING CUSTODY AND CASH ACCOUNT SERVICES

If the Client is not a professional investor, instead of what is stated in the previous paragraph, the following shall apply in respect of interest on amounts owing on connected Cash Accounts, that the interest rate shall only be varied if caused by: official rate changes, changes in the Company's funding costs or other cost increase that the Company could not reasonably have foreseen when the Custody and Cash Account Agreement was entered into. Such change in the interest rate may take effect from and including the day when the Company has informed the Client.

Information concerning interest rates can be obtained from the Company. The interest on credit balances is calculated from and including the day after deposit until the date of withdrawal. The interest on debit balances applies from the day when the debt arose up to and including the date of repayment.

C.9 The Company has the right to charge interest on overdue amounts owed by the Client at such interest rate which by eight percentage points exceeds the applicable interest rate according to section C.8 above for amounts owing on a connected Cash Account.

D PLEDGES

D.1 In addition to the provisions concerning pledges in sub-sections D.2-D.12 below, there are also provisions in the Custody and Cash Account Agreement under the heading Pledging as well as under sub-section C.5 and C.7 above.

D.2 The yield and all other rights based on the collateral are also covered by the pledge and constitute collateral.

D.3 The Company's undertaking in respect of pledged property in its role as pledge holder should not be more extensive than those stated under these conditions.

D.4 The pledge shall not constitute collateral for claims against the Client which the Company has acquired or may acquire from anyone other than the Client, if such claims either have no connection with the Client's trading with financial instruments or have not arisen through the Client's connected Cash Accounts being debited.

D.5 Should the Client fail to fulfil his/her obligations towards the Company under the conditions of this Custody and Cash Account Agreement, or otherwise arising from the Client's transactions in financial instruments, the Company may utilise the pledge as it deems it appropriate. The Company shall proceed with due care in this and shall notify the Client in advance, if this can be done in the Company's judgement without prejudice to the Company. The Company may determine the sequence in which the collateral pledged (pledges, guarantees, etc.) should be utilised.

D.6 In the application of what has been stated above, the pledged securities may be sold in some other way than in the marketplace where the securities are admitted to trading.

D.7 If the pledge consists of a credit balance in the connected cash account, the Company may, without prior notice to the Client, reimburse itself for the amount due out of the funds on the account.

D.8 The Company is empowered, either in person or through the Company's nominee, to sign for the Client where this is necessary in order to utilise the pledge or otherwise to safeguard or exercise the Company's right to pledged property. Towards the same end, the Company may open a separate Custody and Cash Account and/or a Vp-account with the Euroclear or an account with some other book-entry system. The Client cannot revoke such authorisation while the pledge is in force.

D.9 If a guarantee has been issued for the Client's obligations according to the Custody and Cash Account Agreement the following shall apply as regards the guarantor's right to property pledged by the Client solely or jointly with another according to the Custody and Cash Account Agreement.

Where the Company has utilised the guarantee, the pledge shall thereafter constitute collateral for the guarantor's right of claim (recourse) against the Client only if this has been stated in the guarantee. Such right is subordinate to the Company's right to the pledge.

If the pledge constitutes collateral for several guarantors' right of recourse, they have the right to the pledge in proportion to each and every right of recourse, provided nothing else to the contrary has been agreed.

The Company may, as long as the Company has not utilised the guarantee, release collateral which in the Company's judgement is not needed for payment of any amount which is due according to the Custody and Cash Account Agreement, without the guarantor's responsibility decreasing as a result thereof.

D.10 The Client may not, without the Company's prior consent, pledge to a third party property which is pledged according to these General Conditions and the Conditions of the Custody and Cash Account Agreement. Any such pledge to a third party shall be made in accordance with the Company's instructions using such form as has been approved by the Company. If any pledge is made which conflicts with these General Conditions, the Company has the right to terminate this Custody and Cash Account Agreement forthwith and notwithstanding the notice period stated in sub-section G.10. below.

D.11 If the Client has pledged a security recorded in the Custody Account or funds on the connected Cash Account to another party, the Company may, regardless of the Client's objections, release or transfer the security or the funds on the Custody and Cash Account to the pledge holder or to a third party in accordance with the pledge holder's instructions. Notice of such release or transfer shall be sent to the Client.

D.12 The Client may not in any other way dispose of the pledged securities or funds covered in the Custody and Cash Account Agreement without the Company's consent in every individual case.

GENERAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING CUSTODY AND CASH ACCOUNT SERVICES

E TRADE WITH SECURITIES OVER THE CUSTODY AND CASH ACCOUNT

E.1 On the Client's instructions - even in terms of what the Client and the Company may have agreed in a separate agreement on trading via electronic means - the Company will buy and sell securities and carry out other commissions concerning trading in securities on behalf of the Client. After fulfilment and if the necessary prior conditions exist, the Company records such transactions in the Client's Custody and Cash Account.

E.2 The Client accepts that the Company records phone calls and stores data communication in connection with the Client's trade orders or other instructions to the Company regarding the Client's Custody and Cash Account and that the company shall keep these records for a period of time that the Company deems appropriate.

The Company's agreement with NASDAQ OMX Stockholm ("Nasdaq"), Nordic Growth Market NGM AB ("NGM") or other marketplace means that the Company shall be entitled, where appropriate, to check the Client's technical systems and connections and other conditions in relation to order entries through the trading system. The Company shall also be entitled to obtain the information and, where applicable, together with Nasdaq, NGM or other marketplace or relevant authority, implement those controls necessary for the Company to fulfill its obligations towards Nasdaq, NGM or other marketplace or appropriate authority. The Client hereby approves that the Company is given such right.

E.3 The Client is bound by the Company's special Policy regarding execution of orders and aggregation and allocation of orders applicable from time to time, and the terms and conditions applicable from time to time for trading in each type of financial instrument when using the Company's services in respect of such instrument. It is understood that such conditions include the General Terms and Conditions for trading with financial instruments applicable from time to time, the terms and conditions of the Company's sales/purchase order documents, and the terms and conditions of contract notes prepared by the Company, as well as rules adopted by the Company, Swedish or foreign issuer, execution venue, clearing organisation or central securities depository. It is the Client's responsibility to keep updated and comply with such terms and conditions and rules.

E.4 In terms of the General Conditions for trading with financial instruments, the Company has the right to cancel purchases and sales, where the contract is made for the Client's account, to the same extent as the contract is cancelled by the actual execution venue. The same right exists if the Company in other circumstances finds that cancellation of the contract is called for where an obvious mistake has been made by the Company, market counter-party or by the Client personally or, if the Client through the order contravenes the applicable law or other statutes, or if the Client has otherwise contravened good practice on the securities market. If the cancelled contract has already been registered in the Client's Custody Account, the Company will correct the registration and inform the Client in accordance with section G.5.

E.5 In the event of one of the parties being declared bankrupt or if the Client should be subject to company reconstitution, according to the Act (1996:764) governing Company Reconstitution, all outstanding obligations on account of trading in financial instruments shall be set off as between the parties and a balance struck as at the date of such occurrence. Whatever is due by one of the parties after such final settlement becomes payable immediately.

E.6 The Client may authorise the Company to purchase or sell financial instruments. Such assignments may be submitted via the services that the Company provides from time to time (e.g. via telephone, the application Mangold Trader and the web application). Submission of such assignments may only be made in accordance with the Custody and Cash Account Agreement - which includes these General Conditions, General Conditions for trading in financial instruments and guidelines for the execution of orders - and the specific instructions that the Company may communicate. Access to placing orders via electronic transmission (e.g. application Mangold Trader and the web application) requires that the customer has the necessary equipment and access to the Internet.

By submitting orders in accordance with the above, the Client instructs the Company to, in the Company's name and on behalf of the Client, execute orders in accordance with the General conditions for trading in financial instruments.

The Client agrees not to authorise assignments concerning the purchase or sale of financial instruments than as otherwise stated above. Orders may not be submitted by mail, email or fax.

The Client is obliged to check the order status after such orders have been registered, changed or cancelled. The Client shall promptly inform the Company of any ambiguities at order registration, modification or cancellation. After the transaction has been made, the Client receives confirmation of this. The Client shall promptly inform the Company if this confirmation has not been received or if other problems arise. The Company is in no way to be held responsible for any damage that could have been avoided had this announcement occurred immediately.

In addition, the company is not responsible for any damage that occurs due to the Client's order not reaching the respective marketplace or being otherwise distorted.

The Client in making an order may not act in conflict with applicable legislation or regulations or the rules that apply to the actual marketplace, or otherwise violate good practice on the Securities Markets. The Client may not submit buy or sell orders that can lead to trades against other purchase or sell orders submitted by the Client or - unless the order was for a purpose which may be deemed proper - a related natural or legal entity to the Client.

In order to be able to submit orders the necessary securities and / or funds or credit facilities for both the order and commission must be available in the custody / cash account when the order is placed. The Company may choose, in whole or in part, to neglect to take action if the necessary holdings or capacity to take such action do not exist. Within the Company's trading systems barriers exist designed to prevent such orders being executed. The Client however is bound by the orders executed despite the custody/cash account lacking such capacity.

In the Company's system or the system of a particular marketplace barriers may exist concerning prices and volumes for orders made by the Client. These barriers can for example lead to that submitted orders are not accepted due to that the rate specified in the order deviates too much from existing rates or because the order relates to high volumes.

If disruption occurs, the Client is advised to place orders through the Company's broker by telephone. If the Client notifies changes of electronic orders other than by electronic transfer, the order will be treated as a manually submitted order.

F TAXES, ETC.

F.1 The Client shall be responsible for taxes and other dues payable according to Swedish or foreign law in respect to securities recorded in the Custody Account, for example preliminary tax, foreign withholding tax and Swedish coupon tax on dividends.

F.2 The Company may, in accordance with Swedish/foreign law, Swedish/foreign public authorities' regulations or decisions or the Company's agreement with Swedish/foreign authorities, be obliged on account of the Client to take measures concerning tax based on dividends/interest/disposals concerning the Client's securities. It is incumbent upon the Client to provide that information, including written documentation, which the Company deems to be necessary in order to fulfil such obligation.

F.3 If the Company, as a result of the obligations according to section F.2, has paid tax on behalf of the Client, the Company may recompense itself for the equivalent amount in the same manner as set out in section C.3.

F.4 The Company shall, if the Client specifically requests, endeavour to assist in achieving a reduction or restitution of tax and payment of the balance with the tax authorities, if the right thereto exists and if the Company considers it feasible in practice and expedient. The Company may in this connection sign on behalf of the Client and also provide information, to the extent necessary, concerning the Client and the Client's securities.

G OTHER/Common PROVISIONS

G.1 BANKING DAYS DEFINED

By banking days in these General Conditions is meant days in Sweden other than Sundays or other national holidays and, as concerns payment of promissory notes, days similar to holidays (such as Saturdays, Midsummer Eve, Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve).

G.2 FEES, ETC.

Fees will be charged for custodian and other services rendered in accordance with the above provisions according to what the Company notified the Client at the time of opening the Custody and Cash Account or later, in the manner set out in section G.12. The Client is advised that notice of changes to the price list is only provided to the Client via the Company's website.

The fees will be charged to the connected Cash Account in Swedish kronor unless the Company advises otherwise. Information regarding the valid tariff is available from the Company on request. The charges for credit to Clients who are not professional investors are stated in the Custody and Cash Account Agreement.

The Client shall compensate the Company for expenses and outlays in connection with the Company's assignment in accordance with these provisions as well as charges and outlays for monitoring and collecting amounts due to the Company by the Client.

G.3 NOTICES, ETC.

The Company shall be entitled to provide information to the Client by e-mail to the e-mail address stated by the Client in respect of the Custody and Cash Account Agreement and/or via the Client's personal, password-protected area of the Company's website, www.mangold.se, where the Company determines that this is appropriate.

Notices sent by the Company by registered mail or by ordinary mail shall be regarded as received by the Client no later than five banking days after the date of posting/ mailing, if the notice has been sent to the address provided by the Client.

Notices by telefax, telex, S.W.I.F.T., Internet or by other electronic communication shall be regarded as received by the Client at the same time as transmission, if sent to the number or electronic address provided by the Client. If such a notice arrives at the Client's address after office hours, the notice shall be regarded as received at the outset of the following banking day.

Notices from the Client to the Company shall be sent to the address given in the Custody and Cash Account Agreement, unless the Company has requested notices/replies to be sent to another address. Notices from the Client shall be regarded as received on the banking day it arrives at the Company at the address given. Concerning trading in financial instruments, see the General Conditions for trading with financial instruments.

When the information is not aimed at the Client personally, the Company may instead choose to provide this through its website if the Company deems this appropriate. Such notice is considered to have been received by the Client one week after the information has been posted on the website.

rules or contracts/terms relating to certain securities, be obliged to deliver information concerning the Client's affairs relating to the Custody and Cash account Agreement. It is incumbent upon the Client, at the Company's request, to provide that information, including written documentation, which the Company deems to be necessary in order to fulfil such obligation.

The Company will use personal information concerning the Client (both in respect of information provided by the Client and information received from other sources) to that extent needed for the fulfilment of the Custody and Cash Account Agreement and commissions related thereto and for the fulfilment of the Company's legal obligations and will use such personal information concerning the Client for providing information to the Client concerning changes in rules/terms, securities, products and services, etc. directly related to the Agreement. The use of the Client's personal information by the Company may also take place for direct marketing purposes. The Client has the right to be told, once a year, what is registered concerning the Client and to have any incorrect details rectified. The Client shall, in such case, contact the Company.

The Client hereby agrees that the Company may provide the Client's information to other Swedish or foreign securities houses, custodian bank, clearing organisation or equivalent in order to enable or simplify the handling of the Client's orders.

The Client hereby agrees that the Company, in order to provide information, news etc. concerning the securities market to the Client, may provide the Client's personal information to the providers of such information.

G.5 STATEMENTS

Information concerning the Custody Account and the connected Cash Account, for instance contract notes, is provided continually via e-mail to the Client's personal, password-protected area of the Company's website, www.mangold.se. The same applies to the reporting of annual summaries and statements of earnings and tax deductions for tax return purposes. If the Company deems that it is not appropriate with just the electronic reporting as stated above or if the Client so requests, the information, incl. contract notes, may also be sent by post for a fee (as set by the Company's applicable price list on www.mangold.se). Refer to the General conditions for the trading of financial instruments for further information on contract notes.

The Company accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of information that the company obtains from external source concerning securities.

G.6 ERRONEOUS ENTRIES IN THE CUSTODY AND CASH ACCOUNT, ETC.

If the Company, in error, should record securities in the Client's Custody Account or erroneously deposit funds on the connected Cash Accounts, the Company has the right to reverse the wrong entry or deposit in question. If the Client should have accessed the erroneously entered securities or the funds credited in error, the Client shall immediately return the securities or repay those funds received from the sale or from the deposit to the Company. If the Client neglects to do this, the Company has the right, where it concerns the Client's disposal of the securities, to buy in the securities in question and charge the Client's connected Cash Account with what it costs the Company to do so and, where it concerns the disposal of the funds, to debit the Client's Cash Account with the amount in question.

If the Company has taken corrective action, as above, the Company shall immediately notify the Client accordingly. The Client does not have the right to make any claims against the Company in connection with such a mistake.

The terms of the foregoing two paragraphs apply even when, in other circumstances, the Company has recorded securities in the Custody Account or deposited funds on the connected Cash Account that did not relate to the Client.

G.7 DEPOSIT GUARANTEES AND INVESTOR COMPENSATION

These general conditions have been tested by the Swedish National Debt Office and have been found to be covered by the deposit guarantee. According to the Deposit Insurance Act (1995:1571), subsequent to an FSA decision in a particular case or in the event of the Company's insolvent liquidation and where the Client is not able to withdraw its liquid funds deposited in an account with the Company, the Client is entitled to individual compensation not exceeding an amount in Kronor, that at the time of entitlement, corresponds to EUR 100,000. The compensation is paid out by the Swedish National Debt Office within 20 days from the Financial Services Authority's decision or the Company's liquidation, without the need for a special application to be made.

In the event of the Company's insolvent liquidation and where the Client is not able to withdraw financial instruments deposited with the Company, the Client has the right to individual compensation of a total amount, not exceeding SEK 250,000 as of 1 July 2009, according to the terms of the Investor Compensation Act (1999:158) providing investor protection. Such compensation can also include liquid funds for which the Company is accountable. Not later than one year from the date of the insolvency order a Client seeking compensation must submit a demand to the Swedish National Debt Office, which pays compensation following an assessment.

G.8 LIMITATION OF THE COMPANY'S RESPONSIBILITIES

The Company shall not be held responsible for any loss or damage resulting from a legal enactment (Swedish or foreign), the intervention of a public authority (Swedish or foreign), an act of war, strike, blockade, boycott, lockout or any other similar circumstance. The reservation in respect of strikes, blockades, boycotts and lockouts shall apply even if the Company itself takes such measures or is the subject of such measures.

GENERAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING CUSTODY AND CASH ACCOUNT SERVICES

Any loss or damage that may occur in other circumstances shall not be indemnified by the Company provided the Company has observed general standard of care.

The Company shall not be responsible for any loss or damage caused by any of the following - Swedish or foreign - execution venue, custodian, central securities depository, clearing organisation, or others who provide equivalent services or by a contractor that the Company has employed with due care or that has been recommended by the Client. The aforementioned applies to loss or damage caused by the insolvency of any of the organisations referred to above or a contractor. The Company shall not be responsible for any loss or damage that occurs for the Client or any other party on account of restriction of disposal that may be applied against the Company in respect of financial instruments.

The Company shall not accept responsibility for indirect loss or damage unless such indirect loss or damage is caused by the Company's gross negligence. Concerning trading with financial instruments, see the General Conditions for trading with financial instruments.

Where a circumstance as referred to in the first paragraph in this section should prevent the Company from entirely or partly carrying out any measure to be taken in accordance with these General Conditions or buy/sell commissions in respect of financial instruments, fulfilment may be postponed until the obstacle no longer exists. If the Company as a consequence of such a circumstance is prevented from making or receiving payment/ delivery, the Company and the Client respectively shall not be obliged to pay interest.

What is stated above shall apply, subject to the provisions of the Act (1998:1479) on Registering of Financial Instruments.

G.10 TERMINATION

Termination that occurs pursuant to the preceding two paragraphs, may also relate to only certain services covered by this agreement – e.g. trading with electronic orders - or particular assignments covered by this agreement – e.g. custody of certain securities.

On termination of the Custody and Cash Account Agreement, the Company shall surrender/transfer over to the Client all the securities recorded in the Custody Account or - if the termination relates to a specific security - that security. The Client shall give instructions to the Company regarding the surrendering/transferring.
